• Martin Devaux is one of the best Teaching Assistants I've ever had during my Columbia undergrad - it's a privilege to work under martin who is excellent at coding (literally built the scaffolding of one of the paper's figures in 5 minutes in what would have taken me an hour), precise in argument-building (he grapples well with the assumptions and challenges them, thereby improving my paper's argument), and hilarious once you get to know him. Anyone who works with martin is getting an excellent experience.
